

Websites and resources for families with children of all ages

When you can't explore, our recommended websites are the next best thing – with arts and crafts ideas, history, biology and much more.

Company / Developer	Website	Description	Age
ABC Does by Alistair Bryce-Clegg	ABC Does	Activities and ideas of fun things to do at home with younger children.	0 – 3
The Imagination Tree	The Imagination Tree	Practical and helpful ideas to support parents with activities to do with babies, toddlers and pre-schoolers at home.	0 – 3
The Mummy Bubble	Crafts	Crafts to do at home with babies and toddlers.	0 – 3
Fun at home with Kids	Creative ideas for babies	50 activities to do at home with children.	0 – 3
BBC	Cbeebies Radio	Interactive videos, stories, games and puzzles for children to look at and explore.	0 – 3
National Geographic	National Geographic for Kids	Games, quizzes and fun facts to help children explore their world.	3+
Crash Course Kids	Crash Course for Kids	Video encyclopaedia for younger children.	3+
Twinkl	Twinkl	Hands on activities to do at home.	3+
British Council	British Council School Resources	Interactive activities to support English as an additional language at home.	5+
Oxford Owl	Oxford Owl for Home	Activity ideas for families at home.	5+
World Geography Games	World Geography Games	Geography, maps and flags games and quizzes.	6+
DK Find Out	DK Find Out	Videos, quizzes and fun facts.	6+
BBC	Blue Peter Badges	Shows, games and quizzes to do at home.	6+
The Crash Course	The Crash Course	YouTube videos for children on a large range of subjects.	11+
Big History Project	Big History Project	Examining the past, explaining the present and imaging the future.	11+

Candy Floss says ‘stay safe!’

Always consider whether an activity is suitable for your child's age and stage of development.
Take care when using small parts or lengths of materials